Head Teacher – Mr C Bennet

Teacher of Humanities
Main/Upper Pay Range
Required September 2020

Teaching is the most rewarding job in the world. We have the opportunity to change students' lives for the better and you could make a positive impact at St Peter's School.

We are a forward thinking and rapidly improving, "good" school that is creating a legacy of learning for our community. Our students Learn, Aspire and Exceed as they work with our highly skilled teaching and associate staff supporting and guiding them.

St Peter's is part of The Cam Academy Trust which offers students and staff fantastic potential to collaborate, share and develop a wide range of teaching and learning across the schools in the trust. As a family of schools, we support, share and challenge each other to improve the future lives of all our young people.

We are currently seeking to develop our existing Humanities department by employing a dynamic and inspiring Teacher of Humanities to join our team in motivating and supporting our students to ensure outstanding attainment. The ideal candidate will have specialist knowledge in Geography as part of this role will be to deliver other subjects within the Humanities department

We are based in Huntingdon, just 12 miles north of Cambridge with its own mainline station connecting with London in less than an hour.

For the right candidate, we are able to offer the opportunity to teach lessons across the age and ability range from highly aspirational sixth form students getting ready for University to students just starting their secondary school careers.

The Humanities Department has shown sustained success in driving forward GCSE results and is looking forward to continuing this into the future. Our provision is expanding and we are particularly interested in increasing our learning outside the classroom opportunities with an emphasis on post-16 independent fieldwork, reflecting the requirements of the new A-level. The post would therefore be suitable for both an experienced teacher who wishes to take on additional responsibility or an ambitious NQT.

We are a supportive, hardworking and friendly team of staff with a desire to raise student achievement beyond expectation. We have extensive resources to support teaching and learning and are constantly reflecting on our curriculum to make further improvements. We are seeking someone who will show their enthusiasm and demonstrate their commitment to contributing to the innovation of pedagogy in our flourishing Humanities team.

For an application pack, please visit our website www.stpetershuntingdon.org and follow the vacancies link or email recruitment@stpetershuntingdon.org The closing date for receipt of applications is midday on Wednesday 18th December 2019. Interviews will be conducted week commencing 13th January 2020

This school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Successful candidates will be subject to an enhanced DBS check, prohibition from teaching check, section 128 checks and a medical questionnaire.
